SECTION SEVEN – EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY, GOOD RELATIONS COMMITMENT AND CHILD PROTECTION STATEMENT

The Arts Council of Northern Ireland has a statutory duty under the Northern Ireland Act 1998, in carrying out its functions to have due regard to the need to promote equality of opportunity between:

- Persons of different religious belief, political opinion, racial group, age, marital status or sexual orientation;
- Men and women generally;
- Persons with a disability and persons without; and
- Persons with dependants and persons without.

In addition, without prejudice to its obligations above, the Arts Council shall, in carrying out its functions relating to Northern Ireland, have regard to the desirability of promoting good relations between persons of different religious belief, political opinion or racial group.

We (name of business)
recognise these obligations and undertake not to act in any way, which would contravene the Arts Council's statutory duty. We confirm our commitment to the principles of affording equality of opportunity in all aspects of our business's activities, in particular with regard to access and participation in these activities.

It is also our intention to ensure equal opportunity for all job applicants and employees and to eradicate direct or indirect discrimination.

It is also our intention to have regard to the desirability of promoting good relations between:

- Persons of different religious belief, political opinion, racial group, age, marital status or sexual orientation;
- Men and women generally;
- Persons with a disability and persons without; and
- Persons with dependants and persons without.

CHILD PROTECTION POLICY STATEMENT

(only to be completed if the proposal involves working with young people under the age of 18)

We (name of business)
are committed to practice which protects children from harm. Staff, volunteers and artists in this business accept and recognise their responsibilities under the Children (NI) Order 1995, about safeguarding children, and will endeavour to carry these out by:

- having an awareness of the issues which cause children harm;
- adopting child protection guidelines for staff, leaders, volunteers and artists;
- providing information about child protection and good practice to children, parents, staff, volunteers and artists;
- sharing information about concerns with children, parents and others who need to know;
- following carefully the procedures and recruitment and selection of helpers (staff, volunteers, artists) and the management of the group;
- undertaking appropriate training;
- keeping child protection policies under regular review; and
- providing information as required to management committees/funders.

SECTION EIGHT - PUBLICITY, OPENNESS AND ACCOUNTABILITY

Publicity

Full listings of all the grants we award are published in our Annual Report and on our website. You will be required to acknowledge Arts Council of Northern Ireland funding in all your publicity. Failure to credit the Arts Council of Northern Ireland will affect payment of your grant.

Openness and accountability

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 any information held by us (which will include your application) is potentially accessible by the public.

Information supplied by you will be held in manual files. It will then be summarised and details transferred to a computer-based grants management system. Reports from the information you supply and from comments made on your application by external assessors and staff members are likely to be held on both manual and computer-based systems. The information you supply will be made available to those assessing any other grant applications you make.

By submitting your application you waive any right to raise any type of proceedings against the Arts Council of Northern Ireland as a consequence of, or in contemplation of, any disclosure of the contents of your application in response to an information request made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Data protection

Data held on our grants management system is used for of the following purposes; statistical reporting, application assessing, accounting purposes and for contacting you. The details of your grant will be public information (see Openness and Accountability). However, any personal details will be held within our grants management system and our paper files, and accessed only by our staff, appointed auditors and individuals or businesses that may help us assess or monitor grants. You have a right under the Data Protection Act 1998 to access the data held on you by Arts Council of Northern Ireland.

We view your signature on your application form as acceptance of the use of your data as outlined above.

Please note that if you deliberately give any false or misleading information, we will withdraw your application or, if a grant has already been awarded, ask you to pay back any money we have given you. This will also have implications for any future applications you may submit.
